

Kindergarten Baseline Prompt – Student Page

Narrative Writing about Events

Writing Situation

We all have done special things. You may have gone on a trip out of town, won a baseball game, or celebrated your birthday with a party. What are some special things you have done?

Directions for Writing

We can share special events with others by writing them down. Draw a picture and write about something special you did. Use words that will help others share the event with you. Be sure to tell what happened first, what happened next, and what happens last.

Writing and Convention Standards

For this task, students will write:

- a. tell about an event that was special to them.
- b. write by moving across the page from left to right, top to bottom
- c. write upper and lower case letters independently.
- d. spell independently using pre-phonetic knowledge and sounds of the alphabet.
