About Myself:

I love my job! I get to workout with incredible students and work with an amazing staff. I eat right, run at least four times a week, & I hit the gym everyday. I enjoy hanging out with my family. I love movies and books that are suspenseful. The beach is my refuge; Santa Barbara is my second home. I attended college there and I try to go back as much as possible.

Teaching Philosophy:

If I preach it, I live it. I want my students to be healthy and strive for their best, and know that they are worthwhile. I am a big proponent of respect. My kids know that I care and that I do not judge them. I try to make a difference with every kid that comes in my room. There is nothing more worthwhile than seeing someone turn their life around; it is why I am a teacher in Alternative Education.
