

K-12
Budget Cuts

FCMAT
Fiscal Crisis & Management Assistance Team

Total Districts            56
Total Enrollment: *    1,586,076
Estimated Total Cuts: $599,231,500

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date | Source      | District           | Enrollment * | $ Amount    | 1st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-------------|--------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6/27/02     | Contra Costa Times | West Contra Costa Unified | 34,667              | $2,600,000 (02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• shave department budget by 10%</li> <li>• eliminate 27 positions and two after school programs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 6/27/02     | Contra Costa Times | Pleasanton Unified        | 13,430              | $2,400,000 (02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• hiring freezes</li> <li>• reduction in employees' hours</li> <li>• eliminated six custodian positions</li> <li>• a programmer analyst position</li> <li>• administrative assistant</li> <li>• hours slashed for a warehouse driver and an account technician</li> <li>• athletic coaches stipends cut</li> </ul> |
| 6/26/02     | Marin IJ           | Marin COE                 | n/a                 | $1,900,000 (02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 22 positions eliminated</li> <li>• belt tightening across the board</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 6/20/02     | The Tribune        | Lucia Mar Unified         | 10,951              | $1,600,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• nine teaching positions</li> <li>• four elementary school assistant principals</li> <li>• seven administrative positions reduced</li> <li>• conference costs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                          |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date | Source    | District       | Enrollment * | $ Amount         | 1st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------|------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6/12/02     | LA Times         | Los Angeles Unified   | 735,059             | $430,000,000(02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increased class sizes</li> <li>• Reduce some academic support staff</li> <li>• Inspector General's budget</li> <li>• Delay purchasing of school police vehicles</li> <li>• 90 school maintenance positions</li> <li>• See past articles for additional cuts</li> </ul>        |
| 6/11/02     | Press Enterprise | Moreno Valley Unified | 33,395              | $13,000,000(02-03)  |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 84 teachers and support staff</li> <li>• Arnold Heights Elementary will close</li> <li>• Special education staff reductions</li> <li>• High school transportation eliminated</li> </ul>                                                                                       |
| 6/10/02     | LA Daily News    | Capistrano Unified    | 46,756              | $5,500,000 (02-03)      |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dropping Latin classes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 6/7/02      | LA Daily News    | Burbank Unified       | 16,204              | $3,000,000 (02-03)      |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 22 positions (special education, technology, business services, guidance advisers at elementary schools, clerks, and maintenance workers)</li> <li>• Reductions in school supplies</li> </ul>                                                                                 |
| 6/6/02      | LA Times         | La Canada Unified     | 4,300               | not listed               |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cutting expenses</li> <li>• Maintenance will be reduced</li> <li>• Salary expenditures will be lower</li> <li>• Reduced its number of teachers and teacher hours</li> <li>• Some classroom aides will work fewer hours</li> <li>• 20 staff will have reduced hours</li> </ul> |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date    | Source             | District              | Enrollment *  | $ Amount           | 1 st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------|--------------------|-----------------------|---------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 6/6/02  | LA Times           | Walnut Valley Unified | 15,005        | $4,000,000 (02-03) |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 13 fulltime jobs, including administrators and secretaries</li> <li>• 8 high school teacher positions</li> <li>• Hiring freeze for all positions</li> <li>• 12 vacant positions will not be filled</li> <li>• Sweeping reductions in custodial services</li> <li>• Slight increase in the average student-teacher ratio at the high school level</li> </ul> |
| 6/6/02  | Press Enterprise   | Moreno Valley Unified | (see 6-11-02) | (see 6-11-02)       |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Closure of an elementary school</li> <li>• Transferring staff</li> <li>• Cutting management and support staff positions</li> <li>• Modifying class-size reduction in kindergarten and discontinuing it in ninth grade</li> <li>• Scaling back staffing for special education</li> </ul>                                                                     |
| 6/4/02  | Press Enterprise   | Banning Unified       | 4,572         | $1,830,000         |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 55 nonteaching employees hours reduced</li> <li>• 12 month employees will go to 11 months</li> <li>• eight hour days will go to six hour days</li> <li>• six hour days will go to four hour days</li> <li>• five positions eliminated</li> </ul>                                                                                                            |
| 5/16/02 | San Bernardino Sun | Silver Valley Unified | 2,552         | $831,500 (02-03)   |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• consolidating some classes</li> <li>• trimming operational budgets by 5%</li> <li>• discontinuing funds for staff supplemental supplies</li> <li>• reducing costs for medical insurance</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                          |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date    | Source                     | District                  | Enrollment *  | $ Amount         | 1 st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|---------|----------------------------|---------------------------|---------------|-------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5/16/02 | LA Daily News              | Eastside Union            | 2,515         | $256,000 (02-03) |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• return to all-day Kindergarten</li> <li>• limit the numbers of pupils who ride buses</li> <li>• reduce classroom cleaning</li> <li>• laying off four bus drivers</li> <li>• reducing custodial service and eliminating seven part-time positions</li> <li>• reducing vice principal from full time to part time</li> <li>• not filling two teaching positions</li> </ul> |
| 5/12/02 | The Bakersfield California | Tehachapi Unified         | 4,982         | $2,000,000       |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• laid off seven teachers</li> <li>• eliminated three vice-principals' positions</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 5/9/02  | Contra Costa Times         | West Contra Costa Unified | (see 6/27/02) | (see 6/27/02)     |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• middle school textbook clerk</li> <li>• middle school library assistant</li> <li>• typing clerk positions</li> <li>• vision care for employees</li> <li>• special education classes</li> <li>• smaller class sizes for ninth-grade students</li> </ul>                                                                                                                   |
| 5/8/02  | LA Times                   | Irvine Unified            | 24,412        | $5,200,000       |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 15 Special Ed. instructors</li> <li>• 60 athletic coaches</li> <li>• 4 high school counselors</li> <li>• 4 district nurses</li> <li>• K-3 art programs</li> <li>• 130 preliminary layoff notices to teachers in March</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                         |
| 5/6/02  | LA Daily News              | Glendale Unified          | 30,314        | $3,200,000       |                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce administrative and support positions</li> <li>• discontinue public funding of bus transportation (Clark Magnet HS)</li> <li>• increase class size</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date | Source           | District           | Enrollment * | $ Amount    | 1st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------|-------------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5/2/02      | LA Times                | Huntington Beach High     | 14,434              | $4,000,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• summer school programs</li> <li>• special education program</li> <li>• eight (8) special education aides</li> <li>• five (5) full-time custodial jobs</li> <li>• two (2) vice-principals and one librarian</li> </ul>                                                                   |
| 4/22/02     | Tracy Press             | Jefferson                 | 1,338               | $56,000            |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• cut the K-4th grade music class</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 4/19/02     | LA Times                | Fontana Unified           | 38,930              | $200,000 (01-02)   |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 10% cuts for all school sites and departments (01-02)</li> <li>• increasing class size (02-03)</li> <li>• eliminating some physical education classes (02-03)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                |
| 4/18/02     | Sacramento Bee          | Rocklin Unified           | 7,899               | $1,400,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• every other day cleaning schedule</li> <li>• cut Special Friends program</li> <li>• reduce all administrative budgets by 10%</li> <li>• reduce all consultant contracts by 10%</li> <li>• reduce the number of periods at the high school from eight to seven</li> </ul>                |
| 4/17/02     | San Diego Union-Tribune | Chula Vista Elementary    | 23,865              | $2,000,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduction of music program</li> <li>• field trip subsidies</li> <li>• associate principal positions</li> <li>• technology upgrades</li> <li>• travel to conferences</li> </ul>                                                                                                          |
| 4/17/02     | San Diego Union-Tribune | South Bay Union           | 572                 | $1,900,000 (02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• lay-off notices to 34 teachers</li> <li>• larger upper-grade classes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 4/17/02     | Contra Costa Times      | West Contra Costa Unified | (see 5/9/02)        | (see 5/9/02)        |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• cut assistant principal</li> <li>• class size reduction</li> <li>• after school programs *</li> <li>• police services *</li> <li>• elementary music </li> <li>• bilingual education support</li> </ul>  Refer to 5/9/02 article |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date | Source          | District            | Enrollment * | $ Amount    | 1st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------|------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 4/17/02     | Los Altos Town Crier   | Los Altos Elementary       | 3,969               | $3,600,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• $2.3 million in teachers salaries</li> <li>• cuts include 26 temporary teachers, librarians, custodians, office workers, and Internet services</li> <li>• class sizes will increase</li> </ul>                                                                                      |
| 4/15/02     | Mercury News           | Orchard                    | 811                 | $2,200,000         |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• staff lay offs</li> <li>• borrow from proceeds of land sale</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 4/10/02     | The Monterey Herald    | Monterey Peninsula Unified | 12,482              | $8,000,000 (02-03) | Negative                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• close four schools</li> <li>• cut numerous programs &amp; employees</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 4/6/02      | Daily Review           | New Haven Unified          | 13,690              | $2,300,000 (02-03) |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• administrative and support staff</li> <li>• eliminate resource officers</li> <li>• slash after-school transportation</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                      |
| 4/5/02      | Berkeley Daily Planet  | Berkeley Unified           | 9,427               | $5,400,000         | Negative                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• scale back music programs</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4/4/02      | Daily News Los Angeles | Los Angeles Unified        | 735,059             | (see 6-11-02)       |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• deferring funds for art &amp; after school programs</li> <li>• reducing the number of one-on-one Sp. Ed. Aides</li> <li>• increasing class sizes</li> <li>• cutting the number of school nurses, psychologists &amp; counselors</li> </ul>                                           |
| 4/4/02      | The Press Democrat     | Harmony Union Elementary   | 427                 | not listed          |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• possible school closure</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 4/2/02      | Marin IJ               | Larkspur Elementary        | 926                 | $264,000 (02-03)   |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• fewer classroom aides</li> <li>• reduce art specialist</li> <li>• cut reading specialist position</li> <li>• half time clerical positions eliminated</li> <li>• cut membership in professional organizations</li> <li>• special education coordinator position eliminated</li> </ul> |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date    | Source                 | District                                        | Enrollment *            | $ Amount                                | 1 st InterimCertification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 4/2/02  | The Mercury News       | Cabrillo Unified                                | 3,753                   | $1,200,000                              |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• staff reduction</li> <li>• increased class size</li> <li>• busing, literacy and counseling programs in jeopardy</li> <li>• college prep courses and custodial services in jeopardy</li> </ul> |
| 3/28/02 | Marin IJ               | Mill Valley                                     | 2,319                   | $1,000,000 (02-03)                      |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce classroom aide time</li> <li>• reduce math and reading support programs</li> <li>• reclassify a principal's position</li> <li>• cut one financial secretary position</li> </ul>        |
| 3/27/02 | The Press Enterprise   | Riverside Unified                               | 39,688                  | $14,500,000 (02-03)                     |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reversing class-size reduction</li> <li>• consolidating clerical costs</li> <li>• reducing memberships and district vehicle use</li> </ul>                                             |
| 3/26/02 | Orange County Register | Saddleback Valley UnifiedCapistrano Unified | 35,117(see 6-10-02) | $3,300,000(see 6-10-02)             |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduced music, science and JV sports programs</li> <li>• cut administrative positions</li> <li>• reversing class-size reduction</li> </ul>                                             |
| 3/25/02 | Berkeley Daily Planet  | Berkeley Unified                                | 9,427                   | (see 4/5/02)                             | Negative                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• close Franklin Elementary</li> <li>• lay off notices sent to six teachers</li> </ul>                                                                                                          |
| 3/22/02 | Chico Enterprise.com   | Chico Unified                                   | 13,862                  | $1,800,000 (01-02)$800,000 (02-03) |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• lay off notices sent to 30 teachers and administrators</li> <li>• not yet known</li> </ul>                                                                                                    |
| 3/22/02 | Press Democrat         | Cotati-Rohnert Park Unified                     | 7,836                   | $2,200,000                              |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• close Richard Crane School</li> <li>• lay off notices sent to 24 teachers and administrators</li> <li>• cut one principal position</li> </ul>                                                 |
| 3/22/02 | Press Enterprise       | Lake Elsinore Unified                           | 17,769                  | $2,400,000                              |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce pay of non-teaching employees at district office and five schools</li> </ul>                                                                                                           |
| 3/21/02 | Marin IJ               | Larkspur Elementary                             | 926                     | $400,000                                |                                          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• lay off notices sent to five teachers and administrators</li> </ul>                                                                                                                           |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date    | Source             | District                  | Enrollment * | $ Amount            | 1 st Interim | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------|--------------------|---------------------------|--------------|----------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|         |                    |                           |              |                      | Certification           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 3/21/02 | Marin IJ           | Novato Unified            | 7,877        | $1,800,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• travel for teacher recruitment</li> <li>• office equipment replacement</li> <li>• conferences</li> <li>• new computers</li> </ul>                                     |
| 3/21/02 | Daily News.com     | Los Angeles Unified       | 735,058      | (see 4-4-02)         |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• will have to increase class sizes</li> </ul>                                                                                                                   |
| 3/20/02 | Press Enterprise   | Moreno Valley Unified     | 33,295       | (see 6-6-02)         |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• cut 73 temporary teaching jobs by next school year</li> <li>• reduce number of assistant principals and school counselors</li> </ul>                                  |
| 3/19/02 | Fresno Bee         | Fresno Unified            | 81,058       | $4,100,000 (02-03)  |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce CART teachers salaries</li> </ul>                                                                                                                              |
| 3/15/02 | The Sacramento Bee | Folsom-Cordova Unified    | 16,987       | $3,700,000 (02-03)  |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate 11 full-time certificated teacher positions</li> <li>• cut maintenance supplies,</li> </ul>                                                                 |
| 3/13/02 | Contra Costa Times | Mt. Diablo Unified        | 36,824       | $1,500,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate 13 jobs</li> <li>• eliminate marine science program</li> </ul>                                                                                              |
| 3/13/02 | Daily News.com     | Palmdale Elementary       | 21,777       | $857,000 (02-03)    |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate busing to 3 regional</li> </ul>                                                                                                                             |
| 3/13/02 | Press Democrat     | Santa Rosa Elementary     | 4,863        | $4,800,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• closing school</li> <li>• cut teaching positions</li> <li>• cut administrative positions</li> <li>• reduce custodian/secretary hours</li> </ul>                       |
|         |                    | Petaluma City Elementary  | 2,558        | $1,000,000          |                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|         |                    | Sonoma Valley Unified     | 4,967        | $1,200,000          |                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|         |                    | Windsor Unified           | 4,475        | $300,000            |                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 3/8/02  | Daily News.com     | Westside Union Elementary | 6,722        | not listed           |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• laying off all counselors and elementary school music teachers</li> </ul>                                                                                             |
| 3/8/02  | Oakland Tribune    | Oakland Unified           | 53,545       | $5,000,000 (01-02)  |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• district administration</li> <li>• not yet known</li> </ul>                                                                                                           |
|         |                    |                           |              | $15,000,000 (02-03) |                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 3/7/02  | Marin News         | Novato Unified            | 7,877        | $620,000            |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate library book replacement fund</li> <li>• reduce staffing</li> <li>• reduce athletic contribution (all in an effort to increase teacher salaries)</li> </ul> |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date    | Source             | District                       | Enrollment * | $ Amount            | 1 st Interim | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------|--------------------|--------------------------------|--------------|----------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|         |                    |                                |              |                      | Certification           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 3/6/02  | The Argus          | Newark Unified                 | 7,518        | $1,800,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce funding for ESL</li> <li>• reduce funding for reading recovery program</li> <li>• cut school supplies</li> <li>• cut elementary school science funds(all in an effort to increase teacher salaries)</li> </ul> |
| 3/2/02  | LA Times           | Burbank Unified                | 16,204       | (see 4/27/02)        |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate school guidance counselors</li> <li>• reduce number of school nurses and school psychologists</li> </ul>                                                                                                    |
| 3/2/02  | Contra Costa Times | Pittsburg Unified              | 9,662        | $1,300,000          | Qualified        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• not listed</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 2/28/02 | Lodi News-Sentinel | Galt Joint Union Elementary    | 4,089        | $400,000            |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce funds for bilingual education</li> <li>• reduce funds for Gifted/Talented Program</li> </ul>                                                                                                                   |
| 2/28/02 | The Sacramento Bee | Natomas Unified                | 6,953        | $1,600,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce custodial services</li> <li>• reduce funds for instructional</li> <li>• hiring freeze for instructional assistants</li> </ul>                                                                                  |
| 2/28/02 | Contra Costa Times | Albany City Unified            | 3,020        | $1,000,000          | Negative         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• cut teacher, administrator, other staff positions</li> <li>• eliminate elective courses</li> </ul>                                                                                                                    |
| 2/28/02 | Daily News.com     | Los Angeles Unified            | 735,058      | (see 4/4/02)         |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• layoff 2500 administrators, 200 school nurses, counselors, teachers</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                        |
| 2/27/02 | The Tribune        | Lucia Mar Unified              | 10,951       | (see 6/20/02)        |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• cut administrator, teacher, tutor positions</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                |
| 2/26/02 | Contra Costa Times | Livermore Valley Joint Unified | 13,899       | $1,800,000          |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• relocate continuation school</li> <li>• closing one school</li> <li>• consolidating two schools</li> </ul>                                                                                                            |
| 2/26/02 | Fresno Bee         | Fresno Unified                 | 81,058       | $12,400,000 (02-03) |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• eliminate teacher positions</li> <li>• reduce school emergency funds</li> <li>• close public information office</li> </ul>                                                                                            |
| 2/22/02 | Press Democrat     | Petaluma City Elementary       | 2,558        | $217,000            |                         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• overtime and hiring freeze</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                 |

Budget Cut News Articles Compiled by the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT)

| Date | Source    | District          | Enrollment * | $ Amount | 1st Interim Certification | Proposed District Cuts                                                                                                                               |
|-------------|------------------|--------------------------|---------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1/28/02     | SLO Tribune      | San Luis Coastal Unified | 8,195               | not listed       |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PE classes</li> </ul>                                                                                              |
| 1/25/02     | Press Enterprise | Lake Elsinore Unified    | 17,769              | $700,000        |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• before- and after-school programs</li> </ul>                                                                       |
| 1/25/02     | LA Times         | Los Angeles Unified      | 735,058             | (see 4/4/02)     |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• stop art education grant</li> <li>• freeze purchasing library books</li> <li>• stop renovation projects</li> </ul> |
| 1/23/02     | Press Enterprise | Moreno Valley Unified    | 33,295              | not listed       |                                             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• reduce purchasing of supplies</li> <li>• hiring freeze</li> </ul>                                                  |

* Enrollment Data Source: 2001-02 DataQuest, California Department of Education, Demographics Home Page, found on the Web at:
 (<http://data1.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/page2.asp?subject=Enrollment&level=District&submit1=Submit>).