

Norris School

This one-room schoolhouse used to be a place of learning for eight grades of students. It was built in 1882 and ran for 32 years. Our teacher worked there to teach all eight grades and acted as janitor, nurse and disciplinarian.