

DELTA STUDIES CURRICULUM 2008-2009

- Help your students and future citizens know more about the Delta!
- Join more than 100 teachers already using this curriculum that focuses on California's most important resource
- California State Science Standards based
- Hands-on activities and integrated lessons with literary links
- Each unit K – 8 and 9 – 12 grade level appropriate
- Classroom kit of materials available for checkout to Delta Studies teachers who have participated in this training

Participation Requirements:

- September 27 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Day-long field trip tour of the Delta region with Michael Miller from the Department of Water Resources, includes breakfast and box lunch
- November 5 4 :00 – 7:00 p.m. Curriculum and Implementation Strategies, dinner included
- May 6, 2009 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. Portfolio and Project Sharing, dinner included

Stipend/Unit Commitment:

- ◆ Attendance at all 3 meetings
- ◆ Service Learning Project with your class based on Delta Studies Unit
- ◆ Portfolio and presentation of project at final meeting
- ◆ A $200 Stipend will be offered to teachers who complete requirements

University Credit:

One semester unit of university credit available:
Cost is $55 per unit through Fresno Pacific University.

Cost:

$25 includes curriculum, training, materials, delta tour, and meals
$50 for teams of 3 or more from one school

Application:

For application go to the Delta Studies website at:
www.edserv.sjcoe.net/DELTAStudies/

Who Should Attend:

- ✓ K-12 teachers who want to effectively implement science standards
- ✓ Administrators and teachers who want to strengthen their science program using a local resource
- ✓ Educators who want to use a standards based project for Service Learning lessons
- ✓ After school program leaders who want engaging science-based activities

California Dept. of Water Resources

San Joaquin County
Office of Education

Fredrick A. Wentworth,
Superintendent